Laguna Cliffs Marriott Resort & Spa Named a Favorite Place on Google

Dana Point, California, (June 13, 2010) – Laguna Cliffs Marriot Resort & Spa has reached the coveted status of “Favorite Place” on Google, making it one of the most popular local businesses on the site. According to Google, less than 1 percent of the 28 million U.S. businesses receive the recognition. Google identifies the most popular local businesses based on how many Google users looked for more information about a business, looked for driving directions to the business, and more.

“At Laguna Cliffs Marriott Resort & Spa we embrace new technology and consider it an honor to be recognized by an online powerhouse such as Google,” said Jim Samuels, General Manager of Laguna Cliffs Marriot Resort & Spa. “We would like to give a special thanks to our guests who helped us to be named a ‘Favorite Place’ by researching us, writing reviews and visiting our business listing on Google.”

Taking a page from new technology trends, Laguna Cliffs will post a decal provided by Google that includes a special bar code guests can scan with their smartphones. Guests will be able to access the resort’s mobile version of the Place Page on Google where they can read reviews, find out about specials and add the resort as a personal favorite.

Laguna Cliffs Marriott Resort & Spa recently completed a multimillion-dollar full-scale renovation, transforming practically every aspect of the AAA Four Diamond ocean-side resort. With this comprehensive renovation project Laguna Cliffs has successfully recreated the entire Laguna Cliffs experience allowing the property to offer guests unparalleled luxury rooms that are iPod and iPhone ready.
