Laguna Cliffs Marriott Resort & Spa Named “Best Lodging” in Dana Point Lantern Awards

Dana Point, California, (February XX, 2015) – Laguna Cliffs Marriott Resort & Spa has been awarded the Dana Point Golden Lantern Award for ‘Best Lodging’ in the Dana Point Times annual Best of Dana Point Lantern Award. This accolade, which honors local and fan favorites throughout Dana Point, is given to businesses that are consecutively nominated and chosen by the Dana Point Community.

Laguna Cliffs Marriott Resort & Spa has won Golden Lantern Awards in the past for their Spa and wedding venue facilities, this is the first year the property has won the award for best lodging. “We are extremely proud to receive the coveted best lodging honor in this year’s Dana Point Golden Lantern Awards,” said Jim Samuels, General Manager, at Laguna Cliffs Marriott Resort & Spa. “This recognition illustrates our dedication to providing guests with an excellent resort experience.”

About the Dana Point Times Lantern Awards:

Thousands of locals take to the polls to cast their votes on south Orange County’s best offerings at the end of each year. And to kick off the New Year, their voices are heard in the form of three “Best of” issues that highlight the paramount restaurants, services, amenities, beaches, annual events and more in San Clemente, Dana Point and San Juan Capistrano. These three issues are glossy wrapped and filled with pages of vivid descriptions and colorful photos that become staples at business registers, restaurant countertops and our website throughout the year.
