Laguna Cliffs Marriott Resort & Spa: An Oceanside Family Destination with Kahuna Laguna Kids Club and other summer fun activities

Dana Point, California, (August 23, 2011) – The dreaded end of summer vacation is quickly approaching and Laguna Cliffs Marriott Resort & Spa has the perfect answer for a final family-friendly vacation. With abundant family friendly activities including movie nights, the Kahuna Laguna Kids Club and activity center, onsite Splash Zone and nearby nautical adventure at the Dana Point Ocean Institute, Laguna Cliffs Marriott Resort & Spa is the premiere California Oceanside destination for family fun.

The Kahuna Laguna Kids Club welcomes children ages 5-12 and offers full and half-day activity sessions packed with fun. Special Kahuna Laguna children's menus are available daily at the Vue Restaurant. Children can enjoy breakfast, lunch and dinner with choices ranging from Chocolate Chip Pancakes to a delicious Petit Filet.

Starting from the moment the family checks in, children are greeted with a treasure chest full of prizes to choose from and a passport, which takes them on a scavenger hunt throughout the resort. When their journey is completed another prize from the treasure box awaits them.

For outdoor fun, the Ocean-view pool areas feature a family pool with a Splash Zone, water cannons, surf boards with water curl and other family-friendly amenities. And while the children get soaked, mom and dad can enjoy the spa, pool or relax with poolside dining in a private cabana – all within supervision of the Splash Zone.

Saturday evenings feature a special movie night at the resort. Complete with an old-fashioned popcorn machine, complimentary candy and beverages, children are welcome to grab their families and head to the theatre to catch the feature presentation. Children can redeem their ticket stub for a special Kahuna Laguna Breakfast of scrambled eggs, chocolate chip pancakes, bacon and orange juice at Vue on Sunday morning.
